All forms necessary for filing an affidavit with the court are available from the domestic relations clerk, Monday through Friday from 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. or on the court website at www.16thcircuit.org. It is your responsibility to monitor and docket your case.

AFFIDAVIT FOR TERMINATION OF CHILD SUPPORT
INFORMATION WHERE A CLAIM IS MADE THAT NO CHILD
REMAN ENTITLED TO SUPPORT.

NOTE THE FOLLOWING BEFORE COMPLETING THE AFFIDAVIT:

IF THERE ARE MULTIPLE CHILDREN LISTED IN THE ORDER FOR CHILD SUPPORT, THEN A MODIFICATION HEARING MUST BE HELD AND THERE IS A $144.50 FILING FEE PLUS SERVICE FEES. YOU MAY FIND MORE INFORMATION, INCLUDING SOME FORMS, AT WWW.SELFREPRESENT.MO.GOV

A SEPARATE AFFIDAVIT MUST BE COMPLETED AND FILED FOR EACH CHILD THAT IS THE SUBJECT OF TERMINATION OF CHILD SUPPORT AND MODIFICATION.

- A. If the parent receiving child support disagrees and files an Answer the case may be set for a hearing. You may wish to consult with an attorney.

WHEN CAN YOU FILE?

Missouri's procedures for filing Affidavits For Termination of Child Support provide a way for parents who are paying court-ordered child support to terminate the obligation to pay child support when one of the following criteria have been met:

- (1) The child has died;
- (2) The child has married;
- (3) The child has entered active duty in the military;
- (4) The child has become self-supporting, and the custodial parent has relinquished the child from parental control by express or implied consent;
- (5) The child has reached the age of 21;
- (6) The child has attained the age of 18 and
 - (a) the child is not physically or mentally incapacitated from supporting himself or herself, and the child's circumstances do not absolutely require that child support should continue;
 - (b) or has graduated from secondary school or completed a graduation equivalence degree program but did not enroll in an institution of vocational or higher education by October 1 following graduation or completion of the graduation equivalence degree program;
 - (c) or has enrolled in an institution of vocational or higher education by October 1 following graduation from secondary school or completion of a graduation equivalence degree program, but has completed his or her vocational or higher education, failed to achieve grades sufficient to re-enroll at such institution, or failed to complete 12 credit hours in each semester or 9 credit hours if employed 15 hours per week during the semester;
 - (d) or has failed to submit a transcript or similar official document including grades, courses and credit hours at the beginning of the semester to the non-custodial parent;
 - (e) or has failed to produce the documentation within 30 days of the receipt of grades for the educational institution, as requested by the non-custodial

- parent;
- (f) or the child has failed to submit a transcript or similar official document at the beginning of the semester to the parent paying support.

If one of the criteria listed above has been met and you wish to terminate the payment of child support PLEASE READ THE FOLLOWING INFORMATION CAREFULLY. You do not need the help of an attorney to file this affidavit; however, you must meet the following requirements:

WHO CAN FILE?

1. The parent receiving child support may file an affidavit to terminate child support when any of the criteria listed above are met. The parent receiving child support must mail a copy of the affidavit to the parent paying child support and complete the Certificate of Mailing on the reverse side of the affidavit. If there is only (1) child, a Judgment terminating child support as to that child is automatically sent to the Judge for their approval when the affidavit is filed.
2. The parent paying child support may also file an affidavit to terminate child support when any of the criteria listed above are met. The appropriate service fees must be paid and the parent receiving child support must be served before any further action is taken. See information below.

WHERE DO YOU FILE?

1. You must file the affidavit in the county and courthouse where the order for child support was entered.
2. The Affidavit for Termination of Child Support is available at two courthouses in Jackson County. If the order for child support was entered in Kansas City, file your affidavit at the Jackson County Courthouse in downtown Kansas City, located at 415 E. 12th Street. If the order for child support was entered in Independence, file your affidavit at the Jackson County Courthouse in Independence, located at 308 W. Kansas Street.

WHAT IS THE PROCEDURE FOR FILING THE AFFIDAVIT TO TERMINATE CHILD SUPPORT AND MODIFICATION?

First, complete and return the original and two (2) copies of the Affidavit for Termination of Child Support and Form 17. If there is more than one child and the amount of child support needs to be modified, you will be required to file a Form 17, Form 14 and the Income and Expense Statement along with your Motion to Modify, to the Department of Civil Records, Attn: Domestic Docketing. MAIL-INS

The Court Administrator's Office suggests that you not mail your affidavit for termination of child support. However, if you do mail in your motion, please mail all copies back to the court, along with a stamped, self-addressed envelope so we can return a copy to you with a case number and division assignment. The Affidavit for Termination of Child Support must be signed.

WHAT HAPPENS AFTER THE AFFIDAVIT IS SERVED OR AN ACKNOWLEDGMENT/ANSWER IS FILED?

Check case.net on the court website at www.16thcircuit.org approximately 30 days after forwarding the forms, to see if service has been accomplished and/or an Acknowledgment/Answer has been filed.

- A. If the other party was served the affidavit and no Acknowledgment/Answer was filed or an Acknowledgment was filed in which the parties agree to the termination of child support the following should occur:
 1. If there is only (1) child: Thirty days after service, the Judge will review for entry of a Judgment Terminating Child Support. A copy of the Judgment terminating child support will be sent to both parties by the Division.
 2. If there are multiple children, you may need to file a Motion to Modify the Judgment which will require a filing fee of $144.50 plus service fees. It will be set for a court date and service will be issued. You may find more information at www.selfrepresent.mo.gov
 3. If you fail to receive a Judgment for Termination of Child Support and/or Notice of Hearing in the mail within 30 days, IT IS YOUR RESPONSIBILITY to check Case.net or contact the Division.
- B. If the other party files an Answer within (30) thirty days after service contesting the termination of child support:
 1. The Division will set a court date and send Notice of Hearing to both parties.

WHAT HAPPENS WHEN YOU GO TO THE COURT HEARING?

1. Mark the court date on a calendar which you look at often. IF YOU MISS YOUR COURT DATE, YOUR MOTION TO MODIFY MAY BE DISMISSED.
2. Show up on time and do not bring food or drink into the courtroom.
3. Dress appropriately.

Some practical tips for your appearance in court:
do not wear shorts,
do not chew gum in the courtroom.

4. Be courteous to both the Judge and the Respondent/Petitioner.
5. If the termination of child support is granted, the Clerk will send the signed order to the Child Support Department. The Child Support Department will then send notice to your employer to terminate/modify the child support payments.
