

Jackson County Family Court

Resource Services

Please be advised that the Connections supervised visitation and exchange program will suspend services indefinitely effective immediately due to the pandemic. We will reassess and possibly resume services once we are certain we can provide them safely. Parents will incur excused absences during this time and they have been encouraged to utilize electronic communication between children and non-custodial parents if their court order permits them to do so during the suspension period.

March 20, 2020