CRIMINAL CASE MANAGEMENT ORDER

The Court hereby enters the following pre-trial order in this case:

1. The State and the Defendant are directed to disclose all material and information contemplated by Supreme Court Rule 25.03 and 25.05 within _____ days of this date. This order is effective without either side being required to file or serve a formal request.
  - a. The state shall be required to include in this disclosure all material and information in the possession or control of the investigating agency presenting the case for prosecution.
  - b. The party required to make disclosure shall be responsible to ensure the delivery of the material and information. This order contemplates immediate compliance of each party's continuing duty to disclose and furnish opposing counsel all additional information as set out in Supreme Court Rule 25.08.
2. All motions contemplated by Supreme Court Rule 25.04 and 25.06 shall be filed with the Court and served on opposing counsel within _____ days of this date.
3. All other pre-trial motions, including but not limited to motions for mental examination, motions to suppress, and motions in limine shall be filed with the Court and served on opposing counsel within _____ days of this date. Opposing counsel shall have _____ days thereafter to file and serve any applicable written response.

4. In all pre-trial matters which require an evidentiary hearing, counsel must so state in the motion.

5. No endorsement of witnesses or amendments to the Indictment/Information may be made within _____ days of the trial setting of this case.

6. A failure to comply with any of these time limits shall cause counsel to obtain leave of Court by filing and serving a motion stating specifically the reasons for not filing timely. Nothing herein shall prevent a party from applying to the Court for an extension of the time limits set out herein upon a showing of good cause.

7. All applications for a continuance shall be in conformance with Supreme Court Rule 24.09, 24.10, and 24.11 and shall be served on opposing counsel and filed with the division clerk by 3:30 p.m. on the second Wednesday immediately prior the week the case is docketed for trial.

8. Nothing herein shall preclude the court from applying any of the sanctions set out in Supreme Court Rule 25.16 or as otherwise provided by law.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
