Important Notice

Rule 37.28 – Notice of Change of Address – Any defendant who has been released pending further proceedings and any surety for such defendant shall give written notice to the clerk of the court in which the case is pending of any change of address.

You are not authorized to change an address other than your own.

Your address will not be changed in the court's records and you will continue to receive mail from the court at your old address until you complete and sign this form and file the completed form with the court.

Your mailing address is not necessarily the same as the address at which you live. If you do not wish to give the address at which you live, you must still give the court a mailing address. Because court actions are a matter of public record, the address you list will be available to the public.

By signing this form, I acknowledge that the above information is true and correct.
