

Section 13 - Bonds in Decedents' Estates - Independent Administration

Section 12 applies in its entirety except that the amount of the bond must include the full fair market value of the real property as well as personal property, because of the unrestricted authority of an independent personal representative to sell real property without court order.

[END OF SECTION]